

Gayle Fee | August 14, 2015

From left, Save the Harbor/Save the Bay's Bruce Berman, Kiss 108's Billy Costa, Antonio Fernandes of Dorchester, Shawn Thornton, Mike Fallon, Danny O'Hara of Quincy and Save the Harbor/Save the Bay President Patricia Foley show off O'Hara's prize-winning striped bass.

Tracked down: Shawn Thornton, Malia Obama, Tyra Celeste-Jennings

Former Bruin Shawn Thornton reeling 'em in with 40 teens who raised more than $10,000 for Save The Harbor/Save The Bay's kids programs at the annual Fan Pier Invitational Youth Fishing Tournament, where Danny O'Hara, 18, of Quincy won the day with his mammoth 49-inch striper ... First daughter Malia Obama hanging with her squad at Atlantic Fish in Edgartown ... Former Celtic and recent presidential golf buddy Ray Allen shopping with the fam at Backwater Trading Co. in Edgartown ... Red Sox legend Luis Tiant and his bride of 54 years, Maria, celebrating their anniversary at David Burke Prime at Foxwoods Resort Casino, toasting with some Veuve Clicquot Brut followed by lobster bisque, French onion soup, swordfish, and lobster mac and cheese ... The "Today" show interviewing Mattapan student Tyra Celeste-Jennings and Lynne Travers, her coach on the Mildred Avenue K-8 school's Double Dutch Team, on the positive impact of youth sports ... "Today" show correspondent Jean Chatzky dining at Legal Harborside ...