

The Enterprise

September 15, 2015

Save the Harbor treasure hunt under way

Save the Harbor/Save the Bay has hidden 1,000 marbles on beaches from Nantasket to Nahant as part of its fourth annual treasure hunt.

Anyone who posts a photo of himself or herself with one of the marbles to the group's Facebook page and emails it to info@savetheharbor.org, with contact information, will be entered in a drawing for two round-trip flights to any domestic destination JetBlue serves from Logan Airport.

Entries are also allowed, for a $10 donation, until Oct. 31.

Proceeds will benefit free youth and beach programs from Nahant to Nantasket. For more information, visit blog.savetheharbor.org.

The winner will be announced Nov. 1.