50 Projects - 3,200 Volunteers - One Day

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts to hold fifth annual company-wide day of service

BOSTON, Sept. 16, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts (Blue Cross) will hold its fifth annual company-wide Service Day today. Over 3,200 employees will volunteer at 50 different community sites across the state to beautify and improve access to recreational areas, prepare nutritious meals for chronically ill and homeless populations, and enhance educational facilities for low-income children, among many other activities.

“Over the last five years, Blue Cross associates have had the honor of working alongside some of the Commonwealth’s most dedicated community agencies that serve our neighbors,” said Andrew Dreyfus, Blue Cross President and CEO. “Service Day is a real opportunity to make an impact in the communities we serve.”

To support the community service projects, nonprofit partners receive a $5,000 grant and Blue Cross associates will contribute 23,000 volunteer hours. The total community contribution on Service Day is $1 million. Blue Cross also partners with Cradles to Crayons to recreate their Brighton Giving Factory at the company’s Quincy and Hingham offices. Onsite, more than 600 Blue Cross associates assemble product donation kits benefitting 24,000 children in need across Massachusetts.

For more information, visit the Service Day website, read the 2014 Corporate Citizenship Report or watch highlights from Service Day 2014.
