METROPOLITAN BEACHES COMMISSION
THE STATE HOUSE
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS 02133

Metropolitan Beaches Commission Co-Chairs Senator Tom McGee of Lynn and Rep. RoseLee Vincent of Revere and MBC Commissioner East Boston Rep. Adrian Madaro invite you to share your thoughts on the state of our public beaches in Revere, Winthrop and East Boston at a public hearing on Tuesday evening, June 7 from 6:00 pm to 8:00pm at the The Jack Satter House, 420 Revere Beach Boulevard, Revere.

MBC Commissioners Barbara Bishop of Winthrop, Carol Haney and Kathi-Anne Reinstein of Revere, and Manny Lopes and Chris Marchi of East Boston will also be in attendance.

You will have a chance to meet the legislative and community members of the Metropolitan Beaches Commission and share your thoughts on what is working well and what still needs improvement on your beach.

You can download a copy of the Commission's most recent report "Waves of Change" at www.savetheharbor.org/MBC

Since the Commission was created in 2008 there have been important improvements on the region's public beaches, but there is still more work to do - and we need your help to do it.
